Vancouver Residents Take the Heat Off at New Mill Plain Crossing Branch

PORTLAND, Ore. (Aug. 21, 2008) – Over 250 people turned out to take the heat off and visit the new Mill Plain Crossing branch of Unitus Community Credit Union. The grand opening event, held on Saturday, July 26 featured hourly drawings for Visa gift cards, a grand prize drawing for an air conditioning system and complimentary frozen custard. Members who opened multiple products at the event had a chance to win up to $500 in the Unitus cash cube and had the opportunity to spin the Unitus prize wheel. Radio personality Sheryl Stewart of 105.1 The Buzz was on hand to give away prizes and tickets to upcoming concerts and events.

The Mill Plain Crossing branch is the first Unitus branch in Clark County and features a complete line of deposit and loan products, as well as convenient low- to no-cost services, financial planning assistance, an onsite Unitus Mortgage specialist and a tech center for personal and educational research.
